  - Head Chair: Alfred Thomas
  - Vice Chair: Arnav Keshav ("It is not titles that honour men, but men that honour titles." – Niccolò Machiavelli With over 20 Model UN conferences behind him, Arnav has amassed 9 Best Delegate Awards, including an unbroken streak of five on the trot. A Grade 11 student and CLAT aspirant, he has a keen interest in International Law and, because of this, has developed a particular affinity for the Security Council. Having won Best Delegate in some of Bangalore's most prestigious conferences such as KMUN, CoMUN, IRSMUN, DSUMUN and CJCMUN, he has cemented his standing as one of the school circuit's best. His speeches, often filled with legal theory and in-depth case law analysis, dictate the flow of debate in most conferences. In the past year, Arnav has been a force to reckon with in every MUN he has stepped foot in, and shifts the balance of debate merely through his presence in most conferences.)

  - Vice Chair: Vedanth Reddy (Butter Chicken + Romali Roti)
  - Moderator: Aarav Kejriwal (The first ever directive he wrote was no longer than this very paragraph, but genius knows no bounds. Aarav Kejriwal never fails to propel the committee into chaos with unparalleled precision and meticulously detailed directives. From flying a plane into the Berlin Wall to the glorified assassination of Adolf Hitler (he thinks he's funny), his directives dominate the crisis update. Wielding an inexplicable urge to be the harbinger of chaos, He receives pleasure watching delegates cower in fear thanks to his ability to find holes within any argument and is always ready to pick apart a delegate for the smallest errors.
